Oh come let us
sing unto the Lord.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

Oh come let us worship our Maker, for he it is that hath made us and not we ourselves

We are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Let us worship God.

Call to worship.

Holy! Holy! Holy!

Invocation Prayer.

Oh Heavenly Father,
be with us this sabbath morning.

Grant that we may open our hearts to thee in song and praise.
Through our prayers
may we unburden those weekly cares that have blinded us to thy goodness and providence.

Take us Oh Lord and make us thine own.

Grant us grace to cast off the dimness of sight that obscures the truth of thy love to all mankind.

Grant us understanding hearts that we may reaffirm our loyalty to thee and be living examples of Christian stewardship.

We ask it in Christ's name — AMEN.

that amid the clamor of earthly things we may heavenly music. That amid all our hurry

learn peace and quietness

Teach us to take time to commune with thee to be silent and listen for thy voice. Teach us Oh Lord that the best things in life are not riches and possessions.

learning to do Thy of it find our true

We ask forgiveness of our

us the humbleness

Hymn 590

Short Prayer.

Address.

In our scripture reading today we heard the story of the rich young ruler who had the stewardship of great possessions.

Only he did not realize that he was a steward. He owned great possessions and was too reluctant to give them up and follow Christ. He was not only possessed of great riches he was possessed of determination and character. Not sufficiently though to give up all and follow the master.

Stewardship denotes responsibility. Again the story of the three servants we read in the parable of the talents.

Remembrance Day 1957
Knox United Church.

Prayers:

Our Father God, grant that as we gather in thy presence this morning we may remember with humble gratitude and thankfulness
thy boundless goodness to all mankind. Grant too O Lord that we may understand that it is not thy will

but rather our wiffulness and selfishness that carries our own destruction. Teach us our Heavenly Father that if we truly want to make this Thy world one world of peace we must follow in the path of him who died upon the cross for the redemption of the souls of mankind.

We ask thy Blessing upon these young people and their teachers gathered here in remembrance of those whose lives were the price of their safety and whose sacrifice on sea land and in the air pointed out the road of valor and of vision. Grant O Heavenly Father that the lessons they learn from the great sacrifices of those who have fought and not returned maybe the lesson that nothing worth having is gained unless at some sacrifice and in striving earnestly to understand they will and follow it.

We remember Oh Lord
all those laid aside in hospitals across our

Comfort the bereaved and lonely

land and in those other lands across the seas. Our Father who knowest our need better than we give comfort to those who doubt in these days of uncertainty.

Strengthen our faith in Thee that we may see with clearer eye and understand with kinder heart the needs of our neighbor regardless of race color or creed.

Guide our way oh Father that we may never break faith with those who have passed on and who ~~before~~ have passed on to us who remain the heritage of doing thy will to thy glory.

We ask in Christ's name who taught us when we pray to say "Our Father -

Danger to-day is mass hysteria.

When your children shall ask you in time to come, saying, what mean ye by these stories, then ye shall answer them.

Meditation

"["] Daddy = "What is a bomb?" "Will it hurt me?"

"["] Daddy = "What is that big stone over there that one, there, with all the writing on it. What does the writing say Daddy?"

Hard questions for us all. But still harder is the question have we the "faill" to answer

Christ's Redemptive power working in the soul of man.

FOUR FREEDOMS
Freedom from want
Freedom from fear
Freedom of speech
Freedom of religion

FIFTH FREEDOM.
Christ's Gift to those who will use it

" Freedom of the soul from bondage to its own passions "

these questions honestly.
When we question ourselves do we come up unhesitatingly with the answers that these little ones ask for. It takes great faith in these uncertain days and perhaps undeniable heart searching. In our subconscious mind
I suppose the memory of those who paid
the supreme sacrifice

Price of freedom is the price of keeping faith is forever given. It is human too that on this special remembrance day we dig deeper into that subconscious mind

and on remembering we find doubts arising.
Have we kept faith with those who passed on.
Or is the price of keeping faith too great and too dangerous."

Lowell's "Present Crisis"

We see dimly in the present

What is small and what is ^{great}

Slow of faith how weak
an arm

May turn the iron helm of fate.

But the soul is still oracular;
Amid the market's den

Perceives the ominous stir

Whisper from the Delphic cave within

They enslave their children's children

Who make compromise with sin.

Again Lowell

Shame on the costly mockery of piling stone on stone

To those who won our liberty, the heroes
dead and gone

While we look coldly on and see law shielded ruffians slay The men who fair ~~would win~~ would win
their own,

The heroes of today!

Do we fear to speak out in protest against those evils which in peace time sow the seeds of war. Tyranny of wealth, false stewardship. Do we

Lowell

He's True to God who's true to man
Wherever wrong is done, To the humblest and the weakest,

Heath the all beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us;
And they are slaves most base

Whose love of right is for themselves and not for all their race.

It is fear not death that stays

think over questions and then say the things that our circumstances tell us need to be said or are we anxious because it is more comfortable to be mute, or that we hear that our words may perhaps be the prelude to action

To the young people with us today I would HAVE FAITH IN GOD

say have faith. But make your faith grow by looking it and proving it

Have Faith in God so let that faith grow. Water it with experience strengthen it with constant use and it will be your shield and bulwark against all the uncertainties of life

Have faith in God!

Have faith in your neighbor

Have faith in yourself.

When your children ask you as they grow up, whether life is worth living and sacrifice is worth offering in this troubled world, tell them first of the unknown warrior, the heroine, Ethel Carrall, who held no hate for her captors, and of David Livingstone the Ambassador of God and the freedom of Africa. Tell them above all of the Great Surrender which bought the Freedom of the soul of mankind.
